It was the afternoon and time for the school's Christmas festival to begin. Mrs Tan's class were starting it off by singing the first carol. Mum and Dad were sitting with all of the other parents sat in the audience.

Mrs Tan's class sang the first song which was very popular with the audience. Sam was stood in the front row and Kit was just behind her. Kit whispered in Sam's ear, "We did so well!"

Sam turned around to Kit and gave him a little wink. Unfortunately, Mrs Tan was not smiling. Mr Adams had accidentally played a few incorrect chords on his guitar! Oops!

Look at the picture of Mr Adams. Can you spot some ch objects in the picture? Write down each of the words.

Clue: There are three to find!

All the 'ch' words in today's learning make a /c/ sound.

Thankfully the rest of the Christmas festival went well. The whole school joined in with them for 'We Wish you a Merry Christmas.' All of the parents joined in with the chorus. Everyone was having a brilliant time!

Mrs Tan let the children go and say hello to their parents before they headed back to the classroom.

“We thought you were both fantastic! Lovely Christmas singing!” said Mum.

Sentence Time

What will Dad say to Kit and Sam about their singing? Look at the picture and write a sentence to match.

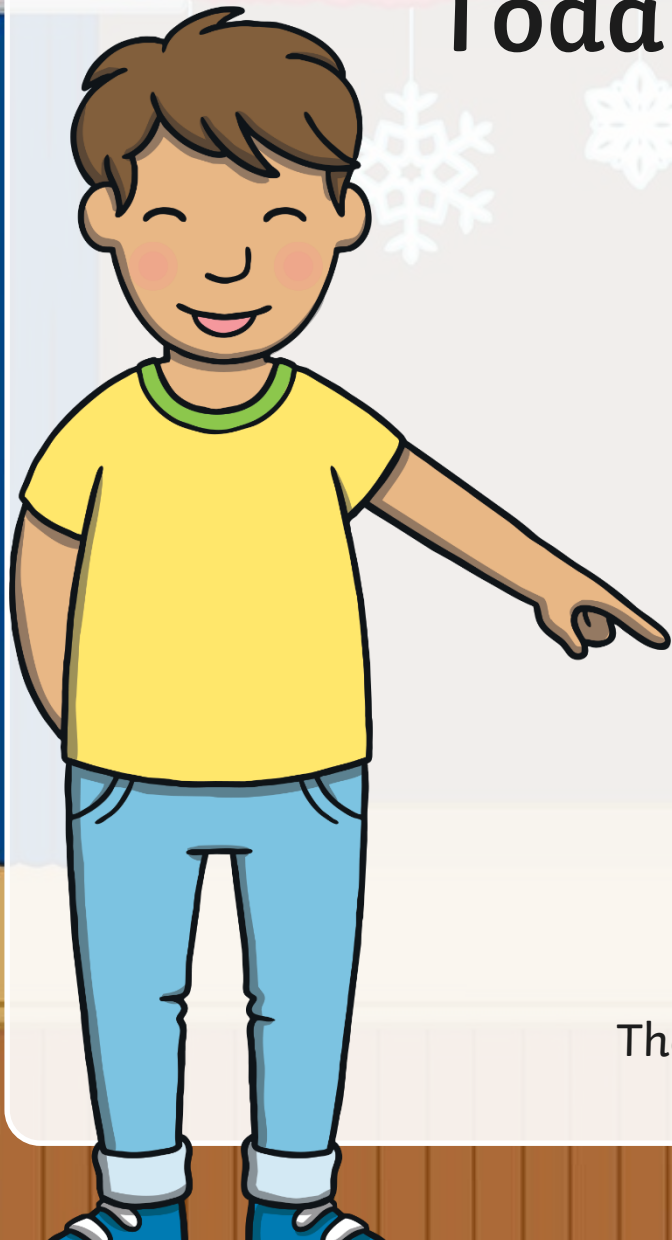

Wow! We thought we were at a
Christmas gig with real popstars singing!

Back at the classroom, Mrs Tan and Mr Adams congratulated the children. "Well done! Everyone in school thought you were amazing! What a great start to our week of Christmas activities!"

Today, we have learnt...
